Tickets On Sale Friday March 25 at 10 am Local Time at Ticketmaster.com*

Arlington, Texas – With over 800,000 tickets already sold for his Dangerous Tour only 13-shows-in to a 58-show 2022 run, reigning Billboard Top Country Artist and ACM Album of the Year winner Morgan Wallen sets first-ever stadium show: Arlington, Texas' Globe Life Field on Saturday, October 8, 2022 with special guests HARDY, Mike Ryan and Jake Worthington.

"I grew up playing baseball... spending more nights than I can count on fields in East Tennessee, so this is really special for me and my entire team," Wallen shares of his first-ever stadium show taking place at Globe Life Field, home to the Texas Rangers. "When we looked at who should do this with us, I knew we needed HARDY as he makes nights like this what they're meant to be about as a friend and a collaborator, and we knew we wanted to shine a spotlight on some new artists that are really doing something cool and different," he added of Ryan and Worthington.

Pollstar opines Academy of Country Music's 2022 Songwriter of the Year HARDY "understands the zeitgeist, the culture and how to fashion hooks to win." And with seven #1 songs that landing on the Texas Music charts, Ryan's third, full-length studio album, Blink You'll Miss It, saw the San Antonian celebrating a top 15 debut on Billboard's Heatseekers Albums chart and Top 40 on the Independent Albums chart. A La Porte, Texas native, Worthington brings a lot of life and red dirt country to the lineup.

"Fans have shown up in ways I never dreamt," Wallen adds. "Because of them, and because of the faith and support a lot of folks have had in me over the years, we're gonna get to do this Texas."

ABOUT MORGAN WALLEN

The New Yorker dubbed Morgan Wallen “the most wanted man in country” in part due to the CMA Award Winner’s 9 billion on-demand streams, multi-platinum certifications and four consecutive chart-toppers, and in part due to his flyover appeal: “Bruce Springsteen meets Larry the Cable Guy.” The critically-acclaimed follow-up to his Double Platinum breakout If I Know Me, Dangerous: The Double Album (Big Loud/Republic Records), topped 2021’s all-genre Billboard 200 Albums year-end chart with 4.1 million units sold and sparked an in-demand 58-show THE DANGEROUS TOUR in 2022 that kicked off this February and sees the “Up Down” (2017), “Whiskey Glasses” (2018), “Chasin’ You” (2019), “More Than My Hometown” (2020), “7 Summers” (2020, named one of Time Magazine’s Best Songs of the Year) and “Sand In My Boots” singer playing two nights at Madison Square Garden and three nights at Bridgestone Arena. Working outside the traditional Nashville mainframe with producer Joey Moi, Hits Magazine notes, “Wallen continually colors outside the lines,” adding, in turn “he’s connected to his fans in ways unprecedented for a country star.” With over 800k tickets already sold for 2022 just 13-shows in, $3 from every ticket sold benefits the songwriter from East Tennessee’s More Than My Hometown Foundation.

ABOUT HARDY

Big Loud Records' booming upstart HARDY broke new ground with his critically acclaimed 2020 debut album, A ROCK, "an album that owes as much to AC/DC as George Jones" and "one of the most self-assured full-length debut albums in years" (Billboard). The project joins countrified mixtape HIXTAPE VOL. 1 and most-recent HIXTAPE VOL. 2, as well as career-launching EPs THIS OLE BOY and WHERE TO FIND ME. HARDY is the 2022 ACM Songwriter of the Year and the 2020 AIMP Songwriter of the Year, additionally nominated for New Artist of the Year at the 2021 CMA Awards. One of CRS' 2021 New Faces of Country Music, a CMA Triple Play award recipient and a Vevo DSCVR artist, the pride of Philadelphia, MS has earned his reputation as "a breakout in the making" (HITS). HARDY has co-penned TEN #1 singles since 2018, including his own chart-topping, double platinum-certified single "ONE BEER" feat. Lauren Alaina + Devin Dawson. Current Top 15 hit "GIVE HEAVEN SOME HELL" is a hard-charged tribute to a fallen friend, the most-added single of the week at country radio upon launch. Serving as direct support on Morgan Wallen's Dangerous Tour now, HARDY has also opened for Jason Aldean, FGL, Chris Lane, Thomas Rhett, Cole Swindell and more.

ABOUT JAKE WORTHINGTON

A La Porte, Texas native, Jake Worthington is a traditionally influenced country artist whose honky-tonk stylings first impressed fans as a finalist on NBC's The Voice (2014). Following his time on the show, the singer-songwriter released a pair of EPs (2015's Jake Worthington and 2017's Hell of a Highway), which featured tracks like "How Do You Honky Tonk," "Don't Think Twice," and "A Lot of Room to Talk," tallying over eight million on-demand streams while the red dirt country star toured alongside Cody Johnson, Riley Green, Pat Green and more. Now signed to Big Loud Records, Worthington dropped HIXTAPE: Vol. 2 collaboration "Jonesin'" with Ronnie Dunn and Jake Owen as he gears up for his own full-length debut.
