GLOBE LIFE FIELD TO SERVE AS NEW LOCATION FOR UPCOMING OKLAHOMA VS. NORTHWESTERN STATE WEEKEND SERIES

Tonight's game at Globe Life Field between Wichita State and Texas State has also been cancelled due to inclement weather

ARLINGTON, TX – Due to anticipated inclement weather in Norman, Oklahoma, Globe Life Field will now host the upcoming weekend series between the University of Oklahoma and Northwestern State.

Also, tonight's game at Globe Life Field between Wichita State and Texas State has been cancelled due to inclement weather. Fans with tickets for tonight's game will receive a refund.

Game times for the series will be noon on Friday, 6:30 p.m. Saturday and 5:30 p.m. Sunday. The previously scheduled slate of games between the TCU Horned Frogs and Nebraska Cornhuskers will continue as planned this weekend. One ticket will allow admittance into two games each day.

The updated full schedule is available below.

Single Day Tickets and Weekend Passes for the games this weekend are on sale now texasrangers.com/collegebaseball.

Fans who hold tickets for OU's series against Northwestern State in Norman may exchange them for any remaining home game on the schedule. Contact the OU Athletics Ticket Office at (800) 456-4668 or outickets@ou.edu for more information.

Tickets will be general admission, and valid for both games each day. Parking lots and gates will open 60 minutes prior to the first game of the day.

The games are the latest addition to the Higginbotham College Baseball Series at Globe Life Field, a slate of nine college baseball games to be played at Globe Life Field this spring.

Globe Life Field hosted the second annual State Farm College Baseball Showdown at Globe Life Field last weekend. Over 25,000 guests attended the tournament, with Saturday marking the highest attended game of the tournament with 10,515 guests. Saturday's attendance was the highest neutral site attendance in the NCAA this season, and the three weekend games each were the highest attended neutral site games this year.

The weekend tournament included Big 12 Conference members Kansas State University, the University of Oklahoma, and Texas Tech University, as well as the University of Arizona, Auburn University, and the University of Michigan. The University of Arizona finished the weekend undefeated at 3-0.

CREDENTIAL APPLICATION PROCESS: Media wishing to apply for credentials for all college baseball games at Globe Life Field, including the Northwestern State vs. Oklahoma series, can do so through at <http://Credentials.MLB.com> with the respective game event listing. To apply for credentials, every organization must have a profile on the website and an assigned affiliate manager. Every media outlet that has previously applied online for Texas Rangers season or individual game credentials, for college and high school football and baseball games at Globe Life Field, or has covered a Major League Baseball “jewel” event (LCS, World Series, All-Star Game, World Baseball Classic) has already been assigned a profile on the website. All media outlets that have NEVER previously applied online for MLB media credentials, or are unable to access their profile on the website, must contact Tyler Strachan of the Texas Rangers Communications Department at 817.533.1663 or via email at tstrachan@texasrangers.com to obtain their login information.

Email addresses will be required for each affiliate member for whom you request credentials. Once you have selected all the members for whom you wish to apply, click “apply selected.” Then select the “confirm” tab at the top of the page and click the box to agree to the terms and conditions. Please indicate for each applicant if field access is required. Please review the entire application thoroughly, then click submit when finished. Only one application per media outlet, per event, containing names of all individuals applying, will be accepted. Photos will not be required for the college games in 2022. You will be notified if your request has been approved or denied.

About REV Entertainment

REV Entertainment is a subsidiary of Rangers Baseball Express, LLC, and was founded in August 2021 as a result of the success of Rangers Events, which had served as the exclusive booking agent for all non-MLB game day events beginning in 2012, first at Globe Life Park in Arlington (now Choctaw Stadium) and since 2020 at Globe Life Field.

About Globe Life Field
