ARLINGTON, Texas – Globe Life Field, home of the World Series-champion Texas Rangers, today announced the field for its 2025 college baseball slate. The venue will host three consecutive weekends of action for the second straight year, and it will mark the fifth consecutive year for college baseball games to be held at Globe Life Field.

Next year's Shriners Children's College Showdown will take place Feb. 14-16 and feature six teams – Arizona, Clemson, Louisville, Oklahoma State, Ole Miss, and Texas. The action will continue with the College Baseball Series benefiting Shriners Children's the following two weekends. Arkansas, Kansas State, TCU, and Michigan will compete in Weekend 2 from Feb. 21-23, and Auburn, Baylor, Ohio State, and Oregon State will complete the slate in Weekend 3 from Feb. 28-March 2.

"We are proud to continue our tradition of being a key stop on the college baseball calendar," said Sean Decker, President of REV Entertainment, the exclusive events partner of the Texas Rangers and Globe Life Field. "Along with Shriners Children's, we are excited to host new and returning teams at our world-class venue, and look forward to delivering an exciting experience for the schools and their passionate fans."

Seven teams in next year's field placed in D1 Baseball's latest top 25 rankings, including four in the current top 10: Arkansas (#3), Clemson (#4), Oregon State (#6), Oklahoma (#12), Arizona (#14), Oklahoma State (#19), and Texas (#25).

Shriners Children's will benefit from a portion of every ticket sold from all three weekends. All nine games of the 2025 Shriners Children's College Showdown will be streamed live by FloSports.

Globe Life Field annually hosts some of the highest-attended games on the college baseball calendar. In 2024, the venue hosted more than 100,000 fans over three weekends. Globe Life Field, which is also the host venue for the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship (May 21-25, 2024) has hosted more than 100 college baseball games in its history. Four teams in the 2025 field will be making their first-ever appearance at Globe Life Field: Clemson, Louisville, LSU, and Ohio State.

"We're thrilled to have many of the nation's premier college baseball teams take the field in support of our life-changing cause," said Dustin Johnson, national director of sports for Shriners Children's. "More than 100,000 fans will join us to help our health care system change and improve lives through high-quality specialty medical care.”
