Following the record-breaking success of Stray Kids' 2024 shows in Asia and Australia, the acclaimed, gold certified, global K-Pop phenomenon unveils 20 new performances on their highly successful World Tour across Latin America, North America, Europe and the UK.

Produced by JYP Entertainment, and promoted by Live Nation, Stray Kids will perform live at Globe Life Field in Arlington, TX, on Friday, June 6, 2025.

The Stray Kids World Tour marks their first full run of stadium dates and long-awaited return following their second world tour, "MANIAC", which successfully held 42 shows across 18 cities. With this new outing, Stray Kids aims to reach more regions and connect with even more STAY (fandom name), across the globe.

The new shows are set to take place next year, kicking off at Estadio Bicentenario La Florida in Chile on March 28 and making stops in cities like Rio de Janeiro; Los Angeles; Toronto; London, and more before wrapping up in Paris at Stade de France on July 26. This marks the first performances for the group in notable global stadiums including SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles, CA; Citi Field in New York, NY; Estadio GNP Seguros in Mexico City, MX, and many more.

Stray Kids has already cemented themselves as global icons, having achieved numerous milestones for the last six years of their career. They've made history with groundbreaking festival appearances, becoming the first K-Pop group to perform at Le Gala Des Pièces Jaunes and headlining major festivals in 2024 such as Chicago's Lollapalooza, Milan's I-DAYS, and London's BST Hyde Park.

The tour has already made waves, captivating STAY in major Australian cities and across Asia. Kicking off in Seoul at KSPO Dome for four nights with an electric show, and will continue through Bulacan, Macau, Osaka, Bangkok, Jakarta, and finish with two nights in Hong Kong on January 18 and 19. The members — Bang Chan, Lee Know, Changbin, Hyunjin, HAN, Felix, Seungmin, and I.N — each have solo performances, with songs hailing from their brand new album "ATE," released this past July. The setlist includes music from past albums including gold-certified fan favorites "Back Door," "God's Menu," and "MANIAC."

ABOUT STRAY KIDS

Stray Kids is JYP Entertainment's eight-member boy band formed in March 2018. The group's name "Stray Kids" stands for their determination to break and escape from tradition, formalities, and the old system. All members not only are talented in vocals, rap, and performance, but have also been credited for producing the majority of Stray Kids' unique discography.

Stray Kids were crowned Top K-Pop Album winners at the recent 2023 BBMAs and Best K-Pop winners at the 2023 VMAs with their full-length album <5-STAR>. The album sold over 4.61 million copies during the first week of its release which, at the time, became the highest 1st week number in K-pop history. The group also won "Group of the Year" at the 2024 People's Choice Awards and "K-Pop Album of the Year" at the 2024 iHeartRadio Music Awards.

Not only did they debut five consecutive albums as No.1 on the Billboard 200 chart with their recent album , and they also became the 2nd K-Pop male group in history to enter the Billboard HOT 100 chart. Stray Kids won't stop breaking through all geographical and cultural boundaries to resonate deeply with global listeners.
